Willkommen in Unterschleißheim!

Information booklet for foreign citizens and guests

Dear fellow citizens,
Dear friends and guests of the city of Unterschleißheim, on behalf of the city, I warmly welcome you. Unterschleißheim is a cosmopolitan and vibrant city and I hope that you feel comfortable with us.

In the initial phase, some everyday questions can become a challenge. We would like to deal with these together with you. The offers in this brochure are a first important guide. In addition, I would like to encourage you to experience the liveable and endearing diversity of our city itself. Starting with the many clubs, the various events and up to the entertaining cultural program and the interesting destinations Unterschleißheim has much to offer.

I wish you a lot of fun and I look forward to meeting you at one of the many city events.

With kind regards,

Christoph Böck
Erster Bürgermeister (First Mayor)

Dear foreign fellow citizens,

Dear visitors and guests,

We welcome you to our city. This brochure should make your first days in Unterschleissheim easier and help you to get to know our town. Whether you are looking for a pharmacy or a kindergarten for your child, register the car or want to know a connection to Munich, here are addresses to help you with this. Cultural offers, religious communities and social facilities are also covered in this flyer, such as weekly market or waste separation. We wish you a nice time in Unterschleissheim!

Members of the Advisory Council for Intercultural Living Together and Migration (Beirat für interkulturelles Zusammenleben und Migration)

The Advisory Council for Intercultural Coexistence and Migration is a body of the city of Unterschleissheim, which is made up of representatives of the city council and the citizens and has the task to build bridges between different nations and cultures in our city. Several members of the panel or their ancestors come from countries other than Germany.

Child Benefit:

The child benefit is available to parents and legal guardians who are domiciled or habitually resident in Germany or who are fully taxable in the Federal Republic of Germany. The entitlement to child benefit arises automatically in the month of birth and exists unrestrictedly until the child's 18th birthday. If the child is in school or vocational training after the age of 18, the right to child benefit exists until the age of 25. The child benefit is not a social benefit, but a tax compensation.

The application for child benefit must be submitted to a family fund. For Unterschleissheim the "Familienkasse Deggendorf" (Family Fund in Deggendorf) is responsible:

Familienkasse Deggendorf, Hindenburgstrasse 32, 94469 Deggendorf
